LONG JING (Chinese green tea)

Originating from Zhejiang province. It has delicate fragrances, a slightly sweet flavor and a silky texture.

SENCHA ARIAKE

Produced in the province of Kyushu. Very invigorating and flowery, rich in anti-oxidants.

PERLES DE JASMIN – Grand cru

The sweetness of green tea balancing beautifully with subtle jasmine notes.

YUNNAN D'OR

With honey and truffle flavours, spicy and wild, this tea is an exceptional crop of a rare delicacy.

THE DU HAMMAM

Inspired by a Turkish recipe. A fruity blend which evokes the fragrances used to perfume the hammam: roses, green dates, red berries and orange flower water.

THE DES CONCUBINES

A refined blend of black and green teas from China mixed with rose petals and pieces of fruit. Cherry, mango and vanilla notes.

OOLONG

BIG BEN

Blend of Yunnan and Assam tea. It is both mild and invigorating, round and spicy.

THE DES LORDS

A classic Earl Grey with a strong Bergamot flavour, supplemented by safflower petals.

DARJEELING MARGARET'S HOPE

A darejeeling full of character, with fruit and wood note giving a dark and reviving brew.

THE DES MOINES

Blend of teas, plants and flowers from Thibet.

SAINT JAMES OP

A light and copper-colored infusion, with an almost chocolaty taste.

THE DU TIGRE

A Taiwanese smoked tea. The leaves are grilled and then laid on bamboo racks over a spruce wood fire.

PU ERH LIN CANG ANNEE 2009

A very particular Chinese tea. Its powerful scent is reminiscent of damp soil and bark.

ASSAM HATTIALI

A full-bodied Indian black tea with a distinctive and spicy flavor.
